Stuck on the Fence About Fostering?

If you've ever thought about Fostering, don't hesitate any longer!
We need YOU!! YOU can make a difference!!

Fostering is a great way to learn about the Great Dane breed, if you're not already familiar. The rescue provides all food, treats, crates, raised feeder, leashes/collars, medical and supplies for the Dane while it's in rescue. Every foster will have a Foster Coach as support. We have group training events with certified trainers to give the fosters the tools and resources they need to work with their foster dog. We attend several events throughout the year, where we take adoptable Danes for the public to meet and learn about them.

We've heard your comments, and we have answers!!

"I'd want to adopt my foster dog if I fostered!"

ANSWER: What's wrong with foster-failing? Nothing!! To us, you aren't failing. You opened your heart and home to a Dane in need that we otherwise wouldn't have been able to take in. We call them "Perfect Placements"!! It really means that the dog found their perfect home.

ANSWER: The rescue provides all the supplies necessary for the dog. All you need to provide is a safe, loving environment until a forever home is found. Or until you figure out that yours is the forever home!!

"I can't afford another dog."

"I don't have time, I work too much."

ANSWER: 99% of our fosters work full time jobs outside of the home. They have families, children playing sports, etc. But they still make it work. Dogs adapt quickly to routine and schedules. Foster dogs need a safe home environment. They don't need a stay-at-home mom/dad in order to live their best life.

ANSWER: Fostering is the best way to learn about the breed, while also utilizing the experience of others within our group for help. We are a community of individuals who love Danes. We want to support and help others become better educated and knowledgeable about the breed.

"I don't know anything about big dogs or Danes."

"I live in an apartment."

ANSWER: We have several fosters who live in an apartment. It's not the size of your space, it's what you do in it. Do you have a grassy area where you could walk the dog, a fenced play yard at the apartment?

We need people/families who can dedicate to fostering a Great Dane in need of temporary placement until a forever home can be found. Without fosters, we would not be able to help save these beautiful dogs that, without rescue, may not have any chance at a life.

If you feel you are that someone who would like to help by fostering, please fill out an application at www.regaldanerescue.com/foster-application-form.

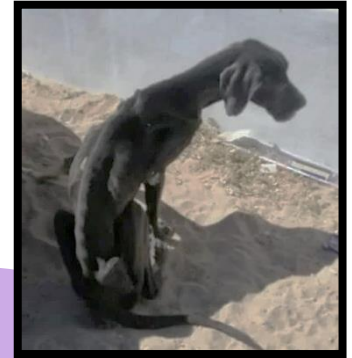

FOSTERING – it’s the bread and butter of our rescue. It has made Regal Dane Rescue what we are today. We can’t function without our fosters. We know we can’t help all of them, and we do say no, but . . .

HOW do you say no to a dog who was abused in her original home and the current owners who rescued her are reaching out for help because they don’t know what else to do to help her heal?

HOW do you say no to a dog who’s been left outside their entire life, living on the end of a chain, and has never known the comfort of a soft bed or cozy home to feel safe in?

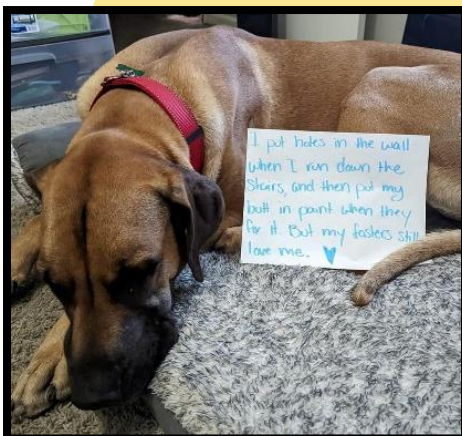

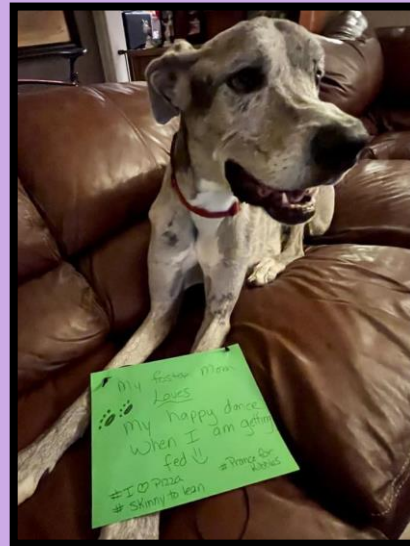

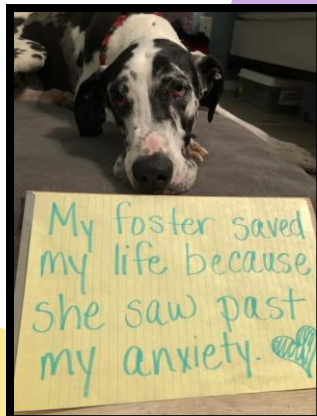

HOW do you say no to a dog that is being bullied by other dogs in the home and now won’t eat and is declining in health?

HOW do you say no when a person has lost their home, their job and their entire world has been turned upside down, but they want to make sure their Dane is cared for and loved?

HOW do you say no to a senior, emaciated female Dane that is dumped at the shelter or in the desert after her owner can’t breed her anymore?

THIS IS WHY WE RESCUE

“I would rather cry happy tears watching them go to their forever home, than tears of sorrow knowing they died alone and scared in a shelter because no one would step up and help them.”
RDR Foster

DOCTOR DROOL

How do I teach my dog to walk properly on a leash?

We asked Bryan and Harmony from Nothing's Impawsible Training to help us answer this question.

What to focus on when training:

- Consistency, communication, and fun!!
- Don't train your dog when you're angry - your energy transfers to the dog through the leash;

- Reward with high value treats/affection (within 3-5 seconds) when dog has done what you asked;
- Expectations/behavior can be communicated by walking pattern, leash control and repetition;
- Distract or remove from any inappropriate situations by turning and putting distance.

STEP 1: When starting out:

- Allow dog a short area of movement
- It's OK to sniff and pause
- Continue until there is consistency each time

STEP 2: Structured walking (only after Step 1 is consistent):

- Walk with the dog on your non-dominant side
- Keep their shoulder at your hip (so they are with you, not ahead of you)
- Do not allow sniffing

VERBAL COMMANDS TO USE AND WHEN:

- "Let's Go":
 - use when starting a walk, or to restart a walk after a pause
 - give command ONCE each time
- "Good":
 - give your dog approval when they do well
 - use this MANY times to communicate the correct actions/behavior
- "Break":
 - to signal their task is complete and time for a reward - give the treat very soon after giving the command
- "Uhh Uhh":
 - used as a 1-time warning for dog to self-correct
 - limit the time to 3-5 seconds
- "No!":
 - a verbal command with a short tug on the leash
 - immediately turn in opposite direction
 - give command ONCE each time

Dog Vomit Color Guide

Brown

Brown vomit could be leftover food from the esophagus, which can happen when a dog eats too quickly.

Green

Green vomit can be caused by eating grass.

Yellow

Yellow vomit is very common when a dog has an empty stomach, and the yellow color that you see is due to bile secretions.

Red

Sign of possible internal bleeding.

Clear, Liquid Vomit

Could be caused by stomach secretions.

Black

Could be internal bleeding, obstructions or eating of mud.
